SKIRMISHING BEFORE BATTLE.

Opposing Forces Arriving on the Political MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., June 3 .- The hotel ro-tundas were crowded early this morning, and the skirmish firing of the last few days swelled into a roar of musketry as the main bodies of the opposing forces began to arrive. Both sides claim to be equally confident, but it is certain that nothing positive can be predicted upon the "claim everything" statements made both by partisans of the President and of Mr.

announce that he will accept the nomination if it is extended him and calm assurance with which they are prosecuting the centest in his behalf has had some weight, however, and the more careful politicians are directing their at-tention to a diligent analysis of the probable vote of the various delegations.

In the matter of figures the Harrison man

In the matter of figures the Harrison managers point to the states which have given positive instructions for the President and cite the assurances of support which they claim to be daily receiving from instructed delegations. The Blaine people give no details, but claim about everything in sight, not limiting their figures to the states in which no instructions were given, but claiming scores of votes from states positively instructed for Harrison. NOMINATION PREDICTED ON THE PIRST BALLOT. Mr. Clarkson, who seems to have been ar-signed to do the heavy tilting for the Secretary of State, declared this morning that Blaine would be nominated on the first ballot beyond would be nominated on the first ballot beyond a perndrenture.

John C. New, on the other hand, who is in command of the Harrison artillery, asserted that the nomination of the President on the first ballot was a fact as certain as the rising of the sun in the east. Neither faction seems to admit the possibility of a dark horse being in the race, but there are those here—old and experienced politicians who are not shouting for either side—who give it as their opinion that the whole thing will wind up, after a prolonged fight, in the nomination of some one who is not now mentioned.

now mentioned.

An astute Illinoisan who has attended every political convention for thirty years said this morning: "There is too much howling for either Illaine or Harrison to be nominated. Each has so strong a following that he can defeat the other's aspirations. My idea of the outcome is that there will be several ballots and then a boilt to an outsider. McKinley is he mighty good place and I should not be several. mighty good place, and I should not be sup-prised to see the plum fall to him. No. Alger is not a possibility for either first or second place. If McKinley gets first place the second place will go east, McKinley and Reed would be a pretty good combination." LAUNCHING OF THE TEXAS.—The battle ship LOOKING FOR A DARK HORSE,

There are others who think that Secretary Rusk is a promising outsider, and some of the Wisconsin people declare that he would have the administration strength if the President could not himself secure the nomination. In fact the backers of "favorites," while they are lying rather low in the tall grass, are not at all displeased with the outlook. They argue that the contest between Harrison and Blaine will be a battle of the giants and that when the two get exhausted one of the small fry will carry All sorts of rumors were affoat last night as

be seen.

The "Blaine boom" has not yet made its appearance. There is some solicitude over this fact, but it is not denied even by the rabid Blaine men that the boom is late in appearing. Benatur Washburn gave a little Blaine dinner at his

It was determined to open up Blaine head-quarters somewhere as a sort of center of influ-ence from which the workers can draw inspira-tion and instructions. This action will be taken tentatively and not openly. The determination to force Blaine into the fight and keep him there is making the Harrison managers more and more bitter. They are getting exceedingly sensitive and touchy. Behind every tree they see a Blaine spook skulking.

As an instance of this is cited the kick that has just been registered by John C. New and his supporters against the big club mass meeting to be held in the convention hall Tuesday even-ing just after the convention assembles. The supporters against the big supporters against the big scheme to be held in the convention hall Tuesday evening just after the convention assembles. The Harrisonians profess to have discovered in this a big scheme to boom Blaine just when it would do the most good. They assert that the subcommittee refused to permit the meeting unless it could name the speakers. This was conceded by President John Goodnow of the Minnesota State League of Clubs, whose pet idea was the mass meeting for the spreading of republican doctrines in the northwest. It has now been announced that one of the principal speakers will be Gov. Foraker of Chio, who is one of the leaders of the anti-Harrison movement. This fact is considered by the Harrisonians significant of the purpose to start a great big Blaine boom just after the convention has assembled.

BAD BLOOD SHOWS ITERIF.

BAD BLOOD SHOWS ITSELF. John C. New and A. L. Conger, one of the Ohio Blaine leaders, had a bit of an encounter in one of the corridors of the West Hotel last in one of the corridors of the West Hotel Instnight. There has been bad blood between these two men, who were formerly good friends, but who have been separated by force of political circumstances. They had been talking at one another through the newspapers a good deal, but until last night had not met. "I know what is the matter with you, Conger," said New.
"You did not get your man appointed postmaster of Akron. That is all there is to it, and that is the only explanation of your anti-Harrison attitude."

Conger replied indignantly and the talk ran pretty high, though both gentlemen kept their tempers.
